CONFERENCE SPEAKERS

TAREK SAAB

Tarek Saab has been a very popular speaker at Catholic men's conferences. As a devout Catholic his inspiring talks cover such topics as chastity, modesty, business ethics, pornography, abortion and prayer. Tarek's big break occurred on the business reality television series The Apprentice, starring Donald Trump, where he was one of the most popular contestants on the show. He has been prominently featured in such magazines as National Catholic Register and US Catholic. On September 20th, 2007, he was the featured guest on EWTN's weekly program "Life on the Rock."

The Knights of Columbus*

ROBERT ROGERS

As Robert Rogers, his wife and children, drove home from a relative's wedding one stormy evening, their minivan was caught in a flash flood. The rushing torrent swept him out the driver's side window, and about a half-mile from the highway, and somehow he managed to pull himself up the south bank of the flooded creek. He was the only survivor. His wife of nearly 12 years and all four of their children went home to heaven. His story of spiritual and emotional recovery will give you a new outlook on God's saving grace.

MAURICE BLUMBERG

Maurice Blumberg has been Executive Director of the National Fellowship of Catholic Men (NFCM) since 2001. He is active in Renew, RCIA, and Alpha ministries. He has been a leader of Catholic men's groups for over 20 years and will be speaking to us about the powerful growth of Catholic Men's Fellowships and Catholic Men's Conferences across the United States over the past fifteen years and the roll NFCM has played in that growth.
